

SVENSKA HAVSFORSKNINGSFÖRENINGEN THE SWEDISH SOCIETY FOR MARINE SCIENCES

SECOND ANNOUNCEMENT:

NORDIC MARINE SCIENCE CONFERENCE 2010

Please help distribute this information to anyone that might be interested.

Dear colleagues in Norway, Denmark, Finland, Iceland, Greenland and the Faroe Islands!

Welcome to the Nordic Marine Science Conference in Strömstad, Sweden, September 13-16, 2010. We hope that as many Nordic marine researchers and research students as possible, along with management and policy-making persons that are interested to learn more about current marine research, should book for this conference!

The programme of invited speakers will give a very interesting introduction to marine science, from physical oceanography to conservation and management.

We have 8 prominent keynote speakers:

Hans-Otto Pörtner	Alfred Wegner Inst., Germany
Chris Hughes	Proudman Oceanographic Laboratory, UK
Lisa Levin	Scripps Inst. Of Oceanography, USA
Svein Jentoft	University of Tromsø, Norway
Emmett Duffy	Virginia Inst. of Marine Science, USA
Georgia Destouni	University of Stockholm, Sweden
Chris Scholin	Monterey Bay Aquaria Research Inst., USA
Ester Serrão	University of Algarve, Portugal

The conference is going to be held at a very nice venue, the new large SPA hotel in Strömstad, close to the new marine national parks, Kosterhavet and Ytre Hvaler.

The THIRD ANNOUNCEMENT and OPENING FOR REGISTRATION AT OUR BOOKING SITE will be from 16th April at www.nmsc2010.org. Deadline for early registration is 1st of June, and late registration will be possible until 15th of August (at a higher price). Research students and postdocs will have large possibilities for economic support if presenting (oral or poster).

Marine companies interested to show their products or organizations interested to present their activities should contact the organizers as soon as possible.
